growing) who love flying their quadcopters in various ways. Photo by Victor R. Last week, Independence Day weekend, the biggest group in drone flying in America got together at the OHC Indian Creek, at Country Club of Baton Rouge, and I got invited to join in.
Here's what it's like to fly a drone near a golf course. The UAV Revolution The club is called the DRC, which stands for Drone Racing Club. And to join them, you need a drone, preferably an electric one, like a DJI Phantom, because they go up so fast you'd get killed if you try to fly a gas-powered one. The DRC says flying in a group that numbers in the hundreds is the fastest way to learn how to fly a drone. Plus, with hundreds of people flying, the opportunity for drama and excitement is also better. And that's where the fun part of flying starts. I wasn't sure what to expect, but I knew I wanted to fly with more people
